Nationality: French

Languages: French mother language; advanced English, Italian; reading of Latin and ancient Greek.

ACTUAL POSITION

Research fellow at University College London (Department of Anthropology) in the framework of Research Project Animal inventiveness: a new insight on agency in evolution, funded by the Leverhulme Trust (under the supervision of Dr Alecia Carter). <https://animalinventiveness.com/>

Qualified by the French National Counsel of Universities to be “Maître de conférences”, i.e., to teach philosophy (qualification 17) and epistemology & history of science (qualification 72) at the university level.

Qualified to be “Maître de conférences” at the Muséum National d’Histoire Naturelle. These qualifications are awarded after a peer-reviewed process.

CURRENT ACTIVITIES

Co-organiser (with Alecia Carter) of the seminar series “Agency: Between Biology and Philosophy” at UCL (in the framework of the research project “Animal inventiveness : a new insight on agency in evolution”, funded by the Leverhulme Trust) since 2024: (latest programme: <https://www.animalinventiveness.com/post/seminar-agency-between-biology-and-philosophy-2025-2026>)

Co-organiser (with Caterina Zanfi) of the seminar “Atelier Bergson” (Ecole Normale Supérieure de Paris – CNRS, in the framework of the IRN project “Global Bergsonism”), since 2022 (latest programme: <https://bergson.hypotheses.org/4319>)

Member of the research group “Thanatobase : A project to understand primates’ responses to death and dying” since 2025 (A. Carter, UCL) <https://thanatobase.mystrikingly.com/>

Member of AFFECT-EVO since 2024 <https://affect-evo.eu/>

Member of the Primate Reading Group London since 2024 (A. Carter & A. Piel)

Collaborator on the Zoogestures project since 2026 (Universität zu Köln) funded by the VolkswagenFoundation (2026-2029). <https://zoogestures.uni-koeln.de/>

PREVIOUS POSITIONS

Assistant teacher and researcher at the Université de Lille, 2022/2023 ; 2023/2024.

Assistant teacher at the Université de Rouen, 2021-2022.

Doctoral candidate at the Université Toulouse 2-Jean Jaurès and the Muséum National d’Histoire Naturelle, 2018-2022.

EDUCATION

2018-2022

Ph. D. in Philosophy of Biology.

At the Université Toulouse 2-Jean Jaurès (ED Allph@, Erraphis) and the Muséum National d'Histoire Naturelle (Institut de Systématique, Évolution, Biodiversité).

Dissertation subject: “Evolution beyond all finalism: Bergson’s critique of evolutionists”.

Advisors: Prof. Paul-Antoine Miquel (Université Toulouse 2-Jean Jaurès), and Prof. Pierre-Henri Gouyon (Muséum National d'Histoire Naturelle-CNRS).

Defence: September 23, 2022. Committee: Prof. Arnaud François (Université de Poitiers), Prof. Giuseppe Longo (CNRS, UAR 3608, École Normale Supérieure), Dr Matteo Mossio (CNRS, Université Paris I, IHPST), Prof Charles Wolfe (Université Toulouse 2-Jean Jaurès), Prof. Frédéric Worms (École Normale Supérieure), Dr Caterina Zanfi (CNRS, UMR 8547, École Normale Supérieure).

2016

Agrégation de philosophie, the most selective comprehensive national examination in philosophy.

Ranking: 50. Language: Ancient Greek.

2015-2016
